HASANZ Website Terms of Use

Last updated: 19 September 2026

These Website Terms of Use apply to your use of the Health and Safety Association of New Zealand (HASANZ) website and its associated web pages and online services.

By accessing or using this website, you agree to these Terms of Use.

1. About this website

The HASANZ website provides information about HASANZ, its member associations, activities, resources, initiatives and services, including access to the HASANZ Register.

We aim to keep information on this website accurate and up to date. However, information is provided for general information purposes and should not be relied upon as professional health and safety, legal or other specialist advice.

2. Acceptable use

You may use this website for lawful purposes and in a manner consistent with the purpose for which the website and its services are provided.

You must not:

- use the website or its content for an unlawful or unauthorised purpose;
- attempt to interfere with the operation, security or availability of the website;
- introduce viruses, malicious code or other harmful material;
- attempt to gain unauthorised access to the website, its systems or information;
- carry out unauthorised data mining, scraping, extraction, harvesting or other bulk collection of information from the website; or
- use information obtained from the website in a way that infringes the rights of HASANZ or another person.

3. HASANZ Register

The HASANZ Register is a public directory provided to help businesses, organisations and individuals find registered professionals who can provide workplace health and safety advice and services.

Information published on the HASANZ Register is provided for this purpose.

Register information, including names, email addresses, telephone numbers, business information and professional details, must not be used to obtain, verify or supplement contact information for unsolicited marketing, advertising, promotional communications, sales activity or other commercial solicitation.

Register information must not be harvested, scraped, extracted or compiled to create or supplement mailing lists, marketing databases or contact lists.

4. Intellectual property

Unless otherwise stated, HASANZ owns or is authorised to use the content on this website, including text, graphics, logos, documents and other materials.

You may view, download and print website content for your own lawful and reasonable use. You must not reproduce, modify, distribute or commercially exploit HASANZ content without permission where permission is required.

5. Links to other websites

The HASANZ website may contain links to third-party websites. These links are provided for convenience and information.

HASANZ is not responsible for the content, availability, security or privacy practices of third-party websites. A link does not necessarily mean HASANZ endorses the organisation, website, product or service concerned.

6. Privacy

Our collection, use and handling of personal information is described in the HASANZ Privacy Statement.

7. Availability and changes

HASANZ may change, update, suspend or remove website content or functionality from time to time.

We may also update these Website Terms of Use. The current version will be published on this website with the date it was last updated.

8. Limitation of liability

To the extent permitted by law, HASANZ is not responsible for loss or damage arising from reliance on information provided on this website, interruption to or unavailability of the website, or use of third-party websites linked from this website.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits any rights or obligations that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

9. Breach of these Terms

Where HASANZ reasonably considers that this website or its information is being used in breach of these Terms, HASANZ may take appropriate steps to protect its website, services, information and users.

This may include restricting or blocking access to the website or relevant services and taking other appropriate action where necessary.

Your existing Register Terms already contemplate measures such as stopping access and blocking an IP address, so this is consistent with the approach HASANZ already takes.

10. New Zealand law

These Website Terms of Use are governed by New Zealand law.
