

General Category

Caroline Marie Hodges

Bachelor of Applied Science (Psychology): Open Polytechnic

"This scholarship is important to me because it affords me the opportunity to explore an area of interest but also supports me to add value to the safety community and the workplaces we serve."

Christopher James Gorringe

Nebosh International Diploma: Coachio Group

"Being able to complete my chosen course of study will allow me to influence and create positive change within my current organisation and any future organisations that I'm part of."

Iveshan (Evo) Lauten

NEBOSH Health & Safety Diploma: Coachio Group

"Receiving this scholarship has been an honour. I really appreciate the recognition and the opportunity it gives me to continue my professional development. It will assist financially and gives me the platform to be able to influence the industry in a positive way."

Janet Roslyn Connochie

Graduate Certificate in Emergency Management: Massey University

"As a person who has been in the industry for a number of years, I'm looking forward to gaining expanded expertise through formal education that will enable me to support the management of hazardous substances throughout New Zealand at a higher level."

Sara May Buchler

Nebosh International Diploma in Occupational Health & Safety: Coachio Group

"This scholarship will allow me to pursue further education in Occupational Safety and ultimately positively contribute to making New Zealand workplaces safer. Having the opportunity to participate in the mentoring programme throughout this course of study will be instrumental in my development."

Postgraduate Category

Cameron Nicholas Gernert

Postgraduate Diploma in Health (Workplace Health and Safety): Victoria University of Wellington

"Thanks to the HASANZ scholarship I will be able to undertake a Postgraduate Diploma in Health (Workplace Health and Safety) through Victoria University. This will allow me to balance out my industry experience with academic knowledge and give back to the health and safety community in a more nuanced way."

Etienne Anthony Shaun Tapueluelu

Master of Business: Auckland University of Technology

"I'm appreciative and grateful for this scholarship as it validates my persistence and determination in building the foundation of my career path in OHS especially in the pursuit of conducting crucial research and influencing meaningful change within organisations and industry for workers in New Zealand."

Tessa Allan

Postgraduate Diploma Advanced Occupational Safety and Health: Massey University

"This scholarship gives me the opportunity to follow my passion for personal and professional growth, something I believe will help me deliver a great service to the Tairāwhiti community. Being able to share my knowledge with my colleagues and my clients is important to me."

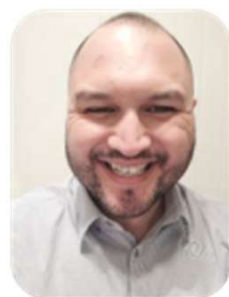

Poutama Category

Pene (Ben) Tipene Morunga-Toi

Nebosh International General Certificate: Coachio Group

"This scholarship enables me to formalise my many years of experience, which, in turn, will allow me to provide advice to a broader work force and industries."

Phillip Regan Armstrong

International Certificate in Occupational Hygiene: OH Learning

"From this training, I hope to provide high quality knowledge and understanding of exposures to New Zealand workers to reduce work-related adverse health effects."

Bridgette Jennings

Company Director's Course: Institute of Directors New Zealand

"I chose this course because I want to upskill in governance so I can work with boards to drive health and safety improvement from the top of the organisational structure."

Occupational Hygiene Scholarships

Keri Ann Devine

International Certificate in Occupational Hygiene: New Zealand Occupational Hygiene Society / OH Learning

"Receiving this scholarship will help me continue on my path to becoming an occupational hygienist. Once qualified, I will be able to pass on this learning to others with the aim of making positive changes in the workplace and creating healthier work environments."

Kevin Patrick Crume

W501, W502, W503, W506: BOHS via New Zealand Occupational Hygiene Society / OH Learning

"It is an honour to receive this scholarship. It enables me to develop my foundational knowledge of occupational hygiene to help contribute to safer workplaces."

Kurt Philip Blomquist

W506, W504, W502: OHTA – Occupational Hygiene Training Association

"The scholarship will allow me to complete further study towards the International Certificate in Occupational Hygiene and also connect with other hygienists and professionals working in the Health and Safety sector."

Taylor Arnold Rooney

International Certificate in Occupational Hygiene: NZOHS/OH Learning

"Receiving the HASANZ scholarship will enable to me to continue my study in the field of Occupational Hygiene. Growth and continuing to hone my skills in the field will allow me to ensure that kiwis have minimal long term health effects from their work."

Human Factors and Ergonomics (HFE) Category

Kathryn (Kat) Hay

Post graduate Diploma in Ergonomics and Human Factors: University of Derby

"I really appreciate the financial support that this scholarship gives me to further my study in Human Factors and Ergonomics. This will help me in my aim in becoming a Certified Ergonomist. Thanks to HASANZ and the sponsors."

Tiffany Jenkins

Graduate Certificate in Occupational Health, Safety and Ergonomics: Latrobe University, Melbourne

"This HASANZ HFE Scholarship will help me in gaining focused knowledge surrounding the full interaction between individuals and the working environment, not only addressing a stronger connection between health and wellbeing and safety but also in improving work design and environments to have a positive impact on health, wellbeing and performance."

Emma Kai Yin Davidson-Khor

Postgraduate Certificate in Health Science: Auckland University of Technology

"This scholarship will allow me to take the first step into the Human Factors and Ergonomics field – a field that truly excites me and has great potential to expand in New Zealand. I hope to use this to further the health and safety of New Zealanders, especially with relation to Occupational Health and Safety. The scholarship also recognises that I have something to add to New Zealand's Health and Safety journey."